

ACADEMIC MANAGEMENT SYSTEM: NDRI

NDRI is providing high quality education at UG, PG and Ph.D. level in the area of dairy sciences. An online system “Academic Management System (AMS)” has been developed to automate academic activities of the institute. The online capability of the system will allow the students, faculty members and administrators to enter and retrieve the information from their respective disciplines. This would help the users to save time and efforts in carrying out the activities as well as bring more transparency in the system.

The system is available at <http://amsndri.icar.gov.in> .

Use only Laptop or Desktop. Preferably use Internet Explorer or Google Chrome web browsers.*
